Headteacher: Dr Annabel Kay

Teacher of English with KS4 Responsibility for Easter or September 2018
MPS/UPS + TLR £2667

“There is a culture of high expectations and this has had a very positive impact on students’ achievement.” Ofsted November 2014

The Warriner School is an oversubscribed, expanding school and as such we are seeking to appoint an energetic, well-qualified and enthusiastic teacher of English with responsibility for KS4. The Warriner School is a mixed comprehensive school which is continuing to build on the early success of our new Sixth Form. The school enjoys a good reputation locally, with dedicated colleagues and enthusiastic students. The English department achieves highly and staff hold high expectations for all students and work tirelessly to continue to raise attainment and achievement. This post will appeal to an English teacher who is skilled at making English relevant and engaging to a wide range of learners. You will have the opportunity to deliver English at A Level and you will be able to further develop your pedagogical practice through our Continuing Professional Development and coaching programmes.
