

LMB Identity

What does it mean to be British?

Four key values, rule of law, democracy, liberty
(freedom) Tolerance of all

Britain includes England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales

Key Words:

Diversity – the fact of many different types of things or people being included in something; a range of different things or people
Equality – the right of different groups of people to have a similar social position and receive the same treatment

Stereotype – a set idea that people have about what someone or something is like based on a specific feature or characteristic
Racism – policies, behaviours, rules, that result in a continued unfair advantage to some people and unfair or harmful treatment of others based on race

Multicultural – including people who have many different customs and beliefs, or relating to a society, organization, city

Homosexual – sexually or romantically attracted to someone of the same gender as you

Heterosexual – sexually or romantically attracted to the opposite gender as your own

Gender identity – each person's internal and individual experience of gender

Transgender – someone whose gender is different from the sex they were assigned at birth

Rights – to privileges every person should have because they are human

Responsibilities – the duties or expected standard to which someone should perform a task

Where to get help and support:

‘Stereotypes can often lead to prejudices—which are formed opinions about a person that are not based on actual experience or reason and could lead to favouring one person or group against another.’

Equality & Human Rights
Commission (EHRC)

Traditional Gender Stereotypes.

Feminine.

Not aggressive.
Dependent.
Easily influenced.
Submissive.
Passive.
Home-oriented.
Easily hurt emotionally.
Indecisive.
Talkative.
Gentle.
Sensitive to other's feelings.
Very desirous of security.
Cries a lot.
Emotional.
Verbal.
Kind.
Tactful.
Nurturing.

Masculine.

Aggressive.
Independent.
Not easily influenced.
Dominant.
Active.
Worldly.
Not easily hurt emotionally.
Decisive.
Not at all talkative.
Tough.
Less sensitive to other's feelings.
Not very desirous of security.
Rarely cries.
Logical.
Analytical.
Cruel.
Blunt.
Not nurturing.

‘Aside from career choice, gender stereotypes can affect every part of life, contributing towards poor mental health in young people, higher male suicide rates, low self-esteem in girls and issues with body image (1 in 5 14 year olds self-harm), furthermore allowing a culture of toxic masculinity and violence.’

Multiculturalism

