Dear Parent, Carer or Guardian,

English in Action: Aspects of Tragedy

In order to support students in achieving the best possible A-level grade in English Literature, we are organising a trip to the English in Action: Aspects of Tragedy workshop at the Emmanuel Centre in London. This trip will take place on Tuesday 6 Nov 2018. The workshop runs from 10:45 - 15:45. The workshop includes four expert speakers who will explore the literary, social and international perspectives of our A-level option, offering comprehensive strategies for approaching set texts and providing students with invaluable insights and helpful guidance to help them achieve their very best in the examination.

In order to cover costs we are asking for a parental contribution of £38.78 which should be paid through ParentPay by Thursday 18th October. When payment is made via ParentPay there is no need for a reply slip to be returned. (Please note for future that emergency contact information will be taken from SIMs. Please ensure all contact details and medical information is kept up to date with the school.)

The deadline for payment or returning a reply slip for 'Aspect of Tragedy' is 18th October 2018. If your child would like to attend the trip, Students should meet the teacher at Banbury train station at 8.00 to take the train to London. Students are asked to pay for their own train tickets as this will give the lowest price.

There are twenty eight places available for this workshop. Y13 are to be given priority.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs K Halsall

Deputy Head for English (KS5)
