

Beliefs and Teachings	Green	Amber	Red
The Nature of God
I know what omnipotence means
I know the story of Moses and how it shows God is omnipotent
I know what omnibenevolence means
I know Bible quotes that demonstrate God's love
I can explain why people think evil and suffering stops people believing in God
I know the quote from Epicurus
I can explain Christian responses to evil and suffering
I know the story of Job and how it explains suffering
I know what the trinity means and I can explain it
I can explain Christian beliefs about the father
I can explain Christian beliefs about the son
I can explain Christian beliefs about the holy spirit
Creation
I know the story of creation as told in Genesis 1-3
I know why Christians believe humans to be special (Genesis 2)
I can explain the literal and non-literal interpretations of the creation story
I can explain the role of the holy spirit in the world
Jesus Christ
I can explain beliefs and teachings about Jesus' incarnation
I can link beliefs about Jesus to specific Bible quotes
I can explain the importance of the crucifixion
I can explain Christian beliefs about salvation and atonement
I can link Christian beliefs about salvation to Bible teachings
I can explain the resurrection of Jesus
I can explain the ascension of Jesus
Salvation
I know how Christians use the Bible to understand God's rules
I can explain how Christians interpret the Bible as the word of God
I can explain how sin links to salvation
I can explain how Christians achieve salvation
I understand the role of the spirit in helping Christians achieve salvation
I understand the importance of the holy spirit in evangelical worship
Afterlife
I know what the term eschatological beliefs means
I understand that Christians believe in an afterlife
I can explain the Gospel of John
I can explain what Christians believe about God's judgement
I can retell the parable of the sheep and the goats
I can explain the parable of Lazarus
I know Christians believe about the resurrection of humans
I can explain traditional Christian attitudes towards heaven and hell
I can explain contemporary Christian attitudes towards heaven and hell
I know and can explain the Catholic belief about purgatory			