

Chapter 3 Checklist THE IMPACT OF DISTURBANCES ON TUDOR GOVERNMENTS p.100-145

TOPIC	QUESTION/NEED TO KNOW	PAGE	REVISED?	R.A.G.
3.1- HOW DID TUDOR GOVERNMENTS DEAL WITH REBELLIONS?
Strategy	Consulting advisers-	101
	Information gathering	102
	Who was Sir Francis Walsingham?
	Role of the nobility- Amicable Grant rising, Lincolnshire rising	103
	What was the Bonds of Allegiance?	103
	Duke of Somerset's handling of rebellions (who was he?)	103-4
	Elizabethan Privy Council	105
	Henry VII's personal supervision	105
	What were the Commissions of array?	105
	Ireland	106
Tactics	Buying time and avoiding confrontation	107
	Wolsey and the Amicable Grant	107
	Henry VIII and the Pilgrimage of Grace	108
	Who was the Duke of Norfolk?	108
	Who was Thomas Cromwell? Early life and career, the fall of Wolsey and its impact, the reformation of the 1530s and the fall of Cromwell.	109
	Somerset and the Western rebellion	109
	The use of propaganda	110-
	Pre-emptive measures	112
	Measures taken by Henry VII	112
	Who was Sir Edward Courtenay?	112
	Measures taken by Mary I	112-3
	Measures taken by Elizabeth I	113
	Ireland	113
	Raising troops	113-114

	Troop shortages- Henry VII and Simnel and the Cornish rebellions, Henry VIII and the Pilgrimage of Grace, Western rebellion, Wyatt's rebellion, Northern Earl's rebellion, Irish rebellion	114-117
	The fate of the rebels	117
	Trials and retribution- Henry VII, Henry VII, Edward VI, Mary I Elizabeth I and in Ireland.	119-123
	Military casualties	118
3.2- THE EFFECTS OF REBELLION ON GOVERNMENT AND SOCIETY
	Crown servants	124
	What was the court of Augmentations?	124
	Religious developments	125
	Key words- define: Iconoclasm, Anabaptists. What were the Placards incidents in France?	125
	Policy changes	125
	Henry VIII's response to the Pilgrimage of Grace	126
	Edwardian concessions	126
	Social and economic reforms	127
	Measures taken to strengthen the royal authority- Henry VII, Henry VIII and the Northern counties, Elizabethan reforms to the council of the North, Ireland	127-129
	Foreign Affairs- Yorkshire rising, Amicable Grant, 1549 and Somerset, Relations with Spain, Wyatt's rebellion, Ireland.	130-131
	In depth studies, chapter summary and key topic debates from the end of each chapter copied, highlighted, noted down on flash cards/ brainstorm	132-145
	Model answers at the end of chapter- photocopied, highlighted, annotated to identify key success features in top level answers			