

Summer reading list

This summer we would like you to choose one, two or all three of the books on this list to read over the holiday. We love and encourage reading and are looking forward to talking about these stories during your English lessons when you join us in September. We do have some copies of the books in school, so please ask if you would like to borrow one.

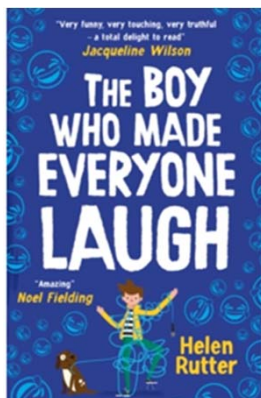

Felix Unlimited – Norris, Andrew

Felix is no ordinary boy. With the help of his friends, he's started his own business, and he soon has thousands of pounds stashed under his bed. But it's not all smooth sailing... especially because he hasn't told his parents yet! Friendship troubles, family drama, finances and fast cars - it's a lot for one boy to cope with. But this is Felix... and he's not going to let anything hold him back.

The Girl in Wooden Armour – Mason, Conrad

When Hattie visits her granny for the first time in years, she's not sure what to expect. Granny has always been unusual. Now she's gone missing without trace. Hattie is determined to find her. But in the strange little village where Granny lives, nothing is as it seems. Is magic real here? What is the shadowy place known as the Un Forest? And who is the mysterious girl in wooden armour? One thing is certain. An ancient evil is stirring in Brokewood-on-Tandle... and only Hattie can stand against it.

The Boy Who Made Everyone Laugh – Rutter, Helen

'Very funny, very touching, very truthful - a total delight to read.' Jacqueline Wilson 'Amazing' Noel Fielding A laugh-out-loud, against-all-odds triumph of a story: the funniest debut of 2021 Billy Plimpton is an eleven-year-old boy with a big dream. He wants to be a stand-up comedian when he grows up: delivering pinpoint punch-lines and having audiences hang on his every hilarious word. A tough career for anyone, but surely impossible for Billy, who has a stammer.
